VENUES CHANGE

Horses carry a profound spirituality and wisdom, and the challenge to connect with it is ours alone. The means to open ourselves to it lies within us all. It is a personal choice for each one of us. The horses are waiting to share.

With Karen's intuitive guidance, her step by step system is easy to follow and understand. Imagine how rewarding it would be to train and develop a deeper understanding of your favourite Equine. Karen will show you how to deal with common behavioural problems, to recognise problem areas before they become a learnt pattern, establishing techniques and cues so that you can have maximum control, creating trust & respect, forming a partnership that you never thought possible.

Karen will show you with calm clarity the equine language enabling you to reach your desired goals. Whether your interests are being an animal communicator, trail riding or performance training, your horse will offer you more when you have the power of knowledge, empathy to show him/her a kind, safe and natural way to be the leader they natural seek from us.

Break down the barrier and let the partnership begin!

Contact Karen White via email, text or phone to discuss your training requirements.
